

SOCIAL JUSTICE TRAINING

TEACHING WITH AN ANTI-RACIST LENS

PRESENTED BY
CTA HUMAN RIGHTS DEPARTMENT
SPONSORED BY
SAN DIEGO SERVICE CENTER EQUITY TEAM

February 15, 2023
4:30 - 6:30 pm

Ronald Reagan Community Center
195 East Douglas Ave.
El Cajon, CA 92020

- Please RSVP by Monday, February 13th
- Dinner will be provided

Teaching from an anti-racist perspective includes creating a classroom space where all students feel welcome and safe.

RSVP - QR Code

For many educators, teaching through an anti-racist lens means helping students understand racism's origins and guises, past and present, so they can become productive adults who understand the importance of racial equity.

In this session, participants will discuss:

- The importance of teaching and learning about all perspectives
- Perspectives of historically oppressed groups
- Strategies for respectfully centering BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) voices
- Shared experiences

#WeAre
CTA

nea
NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
nea.org